

Anderson County Youth Livestock Show General Rules

1. The Anderson County Youth Livestock Show reserves to its Board of Directors the final right to interpret these rules and regulations and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise out of or connected with or incidental to the show, and the right to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine.
2. The Anderson County Youth Livestock Show will not be responsible for loss, or damage to exhibits. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any loss, injury, or damage done to or arising from any entry exhibited. All exhibitors shall indemnify the Anderson County Youth Livestock Show against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.
3. If any exhibitor, or anyone acting on behalf of any exhibitor, interferes with the judges, sifers, or any show official during the performance of their duties or shows any disrespect to them or the show, the Board of Directors shall demand a proper apology from concerned parties or it may exclude the exhibitor from the show and premium sale and may also cause exhibitor to be barred from future participation in the Anderson County Youth Livestock Show.
4. Superintendents will have full and complete charge of all livestock in their respective departments. Entry regulations for health, as given in state regulations, will be followed specifically. An official Texas Animal Health Certificate will not be required. However, all heifers must be calf hood vaccinated for brucellosis prior to the show. Any animal found to have external parasites may be disqualified from the show.
5. Exhibitors must be actively enrolled in an Anderson County 4-H Club or FFA Chapter and attend public or private school in Anderson County this calendar year. Required ages for 4-H membership are: 8 years old and in the 3rd grade (minimum age and grade level, no exceptions), to 18 years of age as of August 31st of the year prior to the show.
6. Entry fees must be enclosed with entry forms. Entry fees are as follows:

Market Steers C $30.00	Breeding Swine C $8.00
Market Rabbits C $15.00	Breeding Heifers C$8.00
Market Broilers C $15.00	Breeding Rabbits C$5.00
Market Lambs C $20.00	Breeding Goats C $8.00
Market Goats C $20.00	Breeding Lambs C $8.00
Market Swine C $20.00	Commercial Heifers C $10.00 per head
Ag Mechanics Project – $20.00

A $25.00 fee will be charged for all returned checks. Returned check fees must be paid in full within 10 days of notification from the board. The exhibitor is ineligible until the validation fee is paid in full and the returned check fee is paid. All entries must be signed by the exhibitor, exhibitor's parents or guardian and their respective FFA instructor or County Extension Agent. Late entries will not be accepted; entry deadline for breeding entries will be thirty (30) days prior to show or a date announced by the Board. Completed entry cards and entry fees are due at the time of validation or, in the case of breeding animal entries, when the entry cards are due. Incomplete entry cards are subject to disqualification. All animals must comply with validation dates, times and deadlines as set by the board.

7. Steers, hogs, rabbits, lambs and goats will be validated on dates designated by the Board of Directors. Completed entry cards and entry fees are due at the time of validation. If an animal has been validated for a major state show, the entry card must be accompanied by a printed photograph of the animal with the ear tag visible. The exhibitor may bring the state validated animal to the county show validation or they may bring only the entry card and the printed photo.

8. Exhibitors will be able to validate an unlimited number of market lambs, goats, hogs, and/or steers. Each animal will be charged an entry fee. Brothers and sisters validating the same animal will only be charged one entry fee per animal. Example: A family with two children and 4 pigs would pay an entry fee on 4 pigs one time.
9. Only brother/sister or stepbrother/stepsister living in the same household shall double validate an entry to the Anderson County Youth Livestock Show.
10. No refund of entry fees will be made after closing date of entry.
11. Sifters will not be used at weigh-in. Scale weights will be utilized for sifting market animals.
12. All sifted animals must be removed from the show grounds immediately following sifting.
13. Each 4-H club or FFA chapter must provide a list of which youth are scholastically ineligible to show at check-in on Sunday before the show. Students that are deemed SCHOLASTICALLY INELIGIBLE WILL BE disqualified along with their animal. NO SUBSTITUTIONS WILL BE ALLOWED.
14. If a scholastically ineligible youth shows his/her animal(s) and it is brought to the attention of the ACYLA Board of Directors, that youth will forfeit auction privileges, all award money and all awards received.
15. Substitute exhibitors will only be allowed if an exhibitor has a medical condition that deems them unable to show their animal. Any other reason for needing a substitute will need to be approved by the board of directors prior to the show beginning. A substitute exhibitor must be a member in good standing of the same FFA Chapter or 4-H Club and must meet all the requirements of an exhibitor in the Anderson County Youth Livestock Show. Substitute exhibitor must register with department superintendents upon arrival at the show.
16. A substitute exhibitor will be permitted if an exhibitor has more than one entry being judged at the same time or two or more entries in the same class.
17. Substitute exhibitors may not compete in showmanship classes.
18. If an exhibitor or substitute is not present to present their animal at the premium auction, the animal will not be allowed to sell. Only in the case of an emergency, and with the permission of a majority of the Board of Directors, would this rule not be enforced.
19. Exhibitors must have continuously and personally fed and cared for their animal(s) from validation date or ownership deadline until after the show is over. Exhibitor or substitute exhibitors must furnish feed and care for animals and keep animals in presentable condition throughout the show.
20. Each exhibitor can show as many market animals as desired, with no more than one in each division; and sell only two (2) market animals in the premium sale. Exhibitors are required to notify the respective department superintendent by the conclusion of the market steer show on their choices of sale items. All Grand & Reserve Champion animals are required to be sold in the premium auction. This includes Grand & Reserve Champion Commercial Heifer pens. Exception-If an exhibitor shows more than two champion or reserve animals, the exhibitor shall choose only two animals to sell, and the exhibitor next in the sale order will move up into that position in the sale in the category in which the exhibitor did not sell in. ACYLA will not provide private treaty floor price sales. The person who is awarded the floor price for animals can set up their own dispersal table to arrange such sales, if they wish to do so.
21. Exhibitors of Grand and Reserve Champion livestock, broilers, and Market rabbits will receive buckles.
22. Ribbons and buckles will be awarded at time of showing. Premium money will be distributed later to respective County Extension Agents and FFA instructors.

23. All protests must be in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $150.00 which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Protests must be filed by noon the day following the infraction, except for those incurred on Wednesday, in which case, it must be filed by midnight Wednesday night. A majority vote of the Board of Directors shall determine the outcome of the protest. All decisions by the judges and sifters will be final.
24. Breeding livestock classes may be changed at the discretion of the Superintendent, with approval of the Board of Directors, to better fit animals after all entries are received.
25. Show photographs will not be taken of exhibitors not properly attired. No items will be sold without official pictures.
26. Showmanship for cattle, hogs, goats and lambs will be divided into Junior (13 & Under) and Senior (14 & over). Divisions open to all exhibitors at no charge. The age breakdown would be as of January 1st. Exhibitors must own the animal shown and must have shown it in another class in this show.
27. The judge will determine the sale order.
28. If a market animal sells at any other sale, it cannot be shown and/or sold in the Anderson County Youth Livestock Show.
29. Cost of pictures for buyers of all auction animals and a 4% sales commission will be deducted from seller's check. A signed official receipt by the buyer for the delivery of the show photograph will be required for release of the exhibitor's auction proceeds. An exhibitor must frame his or her premium sale photograph prior to presenting it to the buyer.
30. Following the auction all sale animals must be properly fed and watered until disposed of at the direction of the buyer. Exhibitors are responsible for contacting their buyers concerning the disposition of the sale animals.
31. The premium sale will consist of 25 steers, 45 market hogs, 15 pens of broilers, 15 pens of fryer rabbits, 15 lambs and 15 goats. Sale order will be: Champions, Ag Mech, steers, hogs, chickens, rabbits, goats and lambs. Sale order will alternate from year to year.
32. Exhibitors are advised that the use of unapproved drugs and chemicals in food animals is illegal. Furthermore, the use of an approved drug and/or chemical via a route of administration not specified on the label, or at a dosage rate not specified on the label, or for treatment of a condition not specified on the label with a legitimate veterinarian/patient relationship is illegal.
33. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed at the Anderson County Livestock Show.
34. Dogs are not allowed at the Anderson County Youth Livestock Show.
35. Exhibitors not making the premium auction may not solicit or receive add-on money through the premium auction via ACYLA. Exhibitors, nor anyone on behalf of an exhibitor, shall not solicit buyers during the premium auction sale.
36. All electrical cords and fans must be placed out of reach of animals.
37. All exhibitors will be expected to participate in a least one designated workday.
38. *NEW: If Multiple parties are purchasing a project and the project is to be floored, one buyer must be designated for the floor price.
39. *NEW: No changes will be accepted to paperwork after it has been turned into the table.
40. *NEW: No animals projects are to leave the show barn until a show superintendent or ACYLA officials have approved the animals or projects to leave premises.

Market Steer Division Rules

1. All entries in this division will be subject to the General Rules and Regulations of the Anderson County Youth Livestock Show Association.
2. Steers will be in the possession of the exhibitor, validated, ear tagged, and placed on feed 180 days prior to the show or a date designated by the Board of Directors.
3. Steers must be dehorned, halter broken, and manageable, otherwise they will not be accepted in the show.
4. All steers will be clipped to have no more than 1/4 inch of hair on any part of the animal's body. The only exception will be the tail switch. The switch may be ratted or balled or may be bobbed off. Steers will be checked at the time of official weigh-in for conformity of the 1/4 inch or less of hair. All steers found in violation of this rule will be eliminated from competition and removed from the grounds. The exhibitor will also be eliminated from competition for the current show in the market steer division. Decision of the steer superintendent and/or steer sifter will be final.
5. Steers must weigh minimum of 1000 pounds at the official show weigh-in to be eligible to enter the show.
6. Steer classes will be divided as equally as possible following the official weigh-in with a maximum of ten (10) steers per class. If two or more steers weigh the same where classes are divided, they will be shown in the same class at the discretion of the Steer Superintendent.
7. All other steers may or may not be consigned to the premium sale at the discretion of the exhibitors. Immediately following the placing of the steer classes, exhibitors must indicate their options to sell.
8. Any steer 2 years old or older will not be permitted to be validated. The validation committee will do tooth determination. If there is a protest on the decision, it is up to the owner of the animal to take the animal to the veterinarian to determine otherwise- at the expense of the owner of the animal. The veterinarian's decision will need to be submitted to the committee in writing.
9. A Showmanship Buckle will be awarded.
10. Steer entry fee is $30.00.

Market Swine Division Rules

- XI. The Grand and Reserve champion in the sale division will be in the premium auction. The judge will then set a sale order for 13 additional projects out of the sale division. Exhibitors that make the sell are allowed to set a minimum price that may not exceed the total price on the bill of materials. The item will count toward the two-item limit in the premium auction.
- XII. There will be an overall best of show chosen out of all the projects that are in the show. The best of show will be awarded a buckle. If this project is a group project, 1 buckle will be presented at the show and the remaining buckles will be ordered and handed out when they are received.

Commercial Heifer Rules and Regulations

1. This show is limited to projects owned, fed, and cared for by 4-H and FFA members in good standing and under the supervision of the Ag. Science Teachers and County Extension Agents. All participants must meet eligibility criteria as established by the Anderson County Livestock Show Rules.
2. The Commercial Beef Heifer Show and Sale is an opportunity for exhibitors to show and sell commercial heifers. Crossbred heifers are desired but purebred heifers will be permitted to show. Any heifer exhibited in the Commercial Beef Heifer Show will not be allowed to compete in the Breeding Beef Heifer Show of the Anderson County Show.
3. There is a Junior Commercial Heifer division and a Senior Commercial Heifer division. Junior and Senior division will be divided as 13 and under and 14 and over as of January 1st of show year as stated by general rule #26.
4. Exhibitors will compete in one division. A Grand Champion and a Reserve Grand Champion will be selected.
5. Commercial Heifers will be counted as one of the two items that can be sold.
6. Heifers must be purchased, obtained or secured from Anderson County residents or adjoining counties residents having cow/calf operation in Anderson County or adjoining counties. The heifers must have been bred and raised by the seller. NOTE: NO THIRD OWNERSHIP HEIFERS WILL BE ALLOWED IN THIS SHOW.
7. Entry deadline will be the same date as the Anderson County Steer validation date. The following paperwork will be due at validation and is to be delivered to a Commercial Beef Heifer committee member or his assignee.
8. Heifers consigned to the show and sale will be tagged in at validation time and date. NOTE: NO HEIFERS WILL BE ACCEPTED FOR TAG-IN IF APPROPRIATE PAPERWORK IS NOT TURNED IN AT THE TIME OF VALIDATION. LOST TAGS MUST BE REPORTED IMMEDIATELY TO A COMMITTEE MEMBER.
9. All heifers must be Brucellosis calf hood vaccinated by validation date. They must have a metal calf hood vaccination tag or tattoo in the ear, and this must correspond with the paperwork turned in at validation. Breeder Verification and residence paper will be required at validation.
10. Heifers must be between 15-19 months of age by the starting date of the Anderson County Livestock Show. They can be bred but must not have calved.
11. Each exhibitor may enter only one pen of commercial heifers. A pen consists of 2 heifers; however, exhibitors may validate 3 heifers.
12. Heifers cannot be added to or switched after validation.
13. Exhibitors must own their heifers through the feeding period. The feeding period begins at validation. Proof of ownership will be provided at time of validation. Exhibitors must feed and exhibit heifers in the Anderson County on their facility, or other committee-approved facility, and exhibit heifers without any aid or assistance other than Anderson County Extension Agents, Ag. Science Teachers, 4-H Adult leader or immediate family members. (Violations will cause the exhibitor to forfeit all rights to participate in the Commercial Beef Heifer Show).
14. Attendance of Exhibitors is expected at time of judging and sale.
15. All heifers must comply with Texas Animal Health Commission rules and regulations, governing entry in the Anderson County Livestock Show.

16. Heifers must be palpated. NOTE: OPEN PREGNANCY STATUS MUST BE STATED ON HEALTH PAPERS AT TIME OF CHECK-IN ON SUNDAY.
*NEW: Heifers must be declared as OPEN on health papers at time of check-in
*NEW: Must declare as Sale or non-sale at Check-in on Sunday.
17. The scoring system used will be as follows:
 - a. 50% for heifers
 - b. 25% record book/feed records
 - c. 25% interview
18. Heifers may be inspected for quality, condition, etc. and 60 days prior to check in of the show by member(s) of the Commercial Heifer Committee. Heifers may be removed for the show, with a majority vote of committee members, pending the results of the inspection. A pen may be removed from the show prior to one week before show. At the 60-day inspection if the committee feels the animals are not show quality then the committee members will do another inspection prior to show. At that time if the animals are still seen as unfit then the exhibitor will not be allowed to check in at the show.
19. There will be no harassment of the judge and/or commercial committee members prior to, during, or after show. The judge will give reasons for his/her placing and this will be considered adequate explanation of their placing.
20. This program is designed to be educations beneficial to the youth of Anderson County. Any parent or exhibitor found to not be adhering to any rules pertaining to the Commercial heifer show will be banned, along with his/her family, for a period of one year, to lifetime, from exhibiting in the program, per the Commercial Beef Heifer Show committee's discretion.
21. All heifer pens will have the option of selling at a special sell. Exhibitors are encouraged to enter pens in sale, but it is not mandatory. Grand and Reserve must sell.
